

Marsha Mader

2003 Wally Rodd - Female Roadrunner of the Year

The PEI RoadRunners Club is please to present Marsha Mader with the 2003 Wally Rodd Female RoadRunner of the Year Award.

Over the past couple of years, Marsha has become a fixture at PEI RoadRunner Races. If there is a RoadRunner race somewhere, Marsha is there. In 2003, she participated in 14 RoadRunner races, and would have participated in even more, if it had not been for a planned off Island marathon.

Interest in Running and Helping Beginners: Marsha is always enthusiastic and supportive of runners at all levels. She is always willing to talk to anyone about her love of running and the benefits that it brings to one's life.

Training, racing and improvement:Marsha can be seen on an almost daily basis on the streets of Sherwood training between races. And that consistency shows in her race times. She participated in races of all lengths, from the ADL golden mile, which she completed in 7 minutes, to the 21 mile Big Sur in California, and Washington Marathon in 2003 and the Rock and Roll marathon in Arizona in January of this year.

Always gave her Best:On the race course, Marsha always gives her best. Although having said this, she is also a runner who doesn't worry too much about her times, but always makes sure that she, and other runners around her, get the most out of a run.

It gives us great pleasure to award Marsha Mader the 2003 Wally Rodd Female RoadRunner of the Year.

Congratulations Marsha.
