

Janet Bain -
The Gemini Screen Printing & Embroidery
Volunteer of the Year

The Gemini Screen Printing & Embroidery Volunteer of the Year award for 2007 is presented to Janet Bain.

A couple of years ago, the Club added a very enthusiastic new member. What we didn't realize was that we got a 2 for 1 deal. Along with Alex, came his mother Janet (JYPSY) Bain. She is an incredible support to Alex taking him to EVERY running event on the Island.

Now that Alex is an experienced RoadRunner, Janet has more time on her hands on Saturday mornings and is more than willing to fill any role that is asked of her in supporting our races. She helps with registration, water stops, finish line photos, results, and what ever else is needed. She also has a car trunk full of supplies that has been called upon on more than one occasion!

However, her volunteer efforts do not stop when the race is over. Her efforts, along with Alex, in maintaining the RUNMAN BLOG are much appreciated by runners, and it has become a reading staple for many of us. She and Alex do such a good job in keeping us up to-date on all running, sporting events (and the occasional autism detour) that our Newsletter Editor (Kim) has thrown in the towel trying to keep up with them.

Congratulations Janet on winning the Gemini Screen Printing and Embroidery Volunteer-of-the-Year award. Thanks for all your contributions to our RoadRunners Club!
