

ADL/Sport PEI Junior Achievement Awards

Junior Male – Thomas Lewis

The male winner of the ADL/Sport PEI Junior Achievement Award for 2009 is Thomas Lewis of Marshfield.

Thomas increased his participation level in 2010, competing in 5 RoadRunner races. He was the top junior male finisher in 4 out of 5 of those races.

Thomas had impressive results for a young runner.

- In the DQ Bunny Hop, Thomas finished the 10K in 46:43
 - Later in the season, he dropped his 10K time to 41:52 in the SADD run
- At the 5K distance, he had an impressive 20:23 finish, and
 - In the Clark's Toyota 5 Mile race, Thomas finished in a time of 33:31
 - Thomas also stepped up to a longer distance race this year and completed the Fulton Campbell Half-Marathon in a time of 1:49:44.

Thomas finished the race season with a total of 142 points.

Congratulations to Thomas Lewis, the of the ADL/Sport PEI Junior Achievement Award for 2010.

Congratulations Thomas.