

DYON WINS ISLAND MARATHON

Mike Dyon of Rexdale, Ont. raises his arms in triumph as he crosses the finish line on University Avenue in Charlottetown on Sunday to win the 5th annual Island Marathon. Dyon finished the race from Cavendish to the city in two hours, 35 minutes, 38 seconds, to miss by three minutes the record time set last season by Tim Loftus of Florida. Loftus finished second yesterday. Dyon was a member of the 1983 Canadian Pan-Am Games team, was the Canadian Marathon champion in 1981 and 1982 and was named Canadian runner of the year in 1981. He also ran for Canada in the 1982 Commonwealth Games in Brisbane, Australia. (See story page 9). (PHOTO BY BRIAN MCINNIS).

WINNER DYON COOLS OFF AFTER RACE
5TH ISLAND MARATHON

MADE IN CANADA BY APOLLO

5TH ISLAND MARATHON

Winds Slow Runners; Dyon Misses Record

title with a line of 50 characters

