ADL/Sport PEI Senior Achievement Awards

Senior Male Winner – Steven Baglole

The Senior Male winner of the Hashems Variety Championship Point Series and the ADL/Sport PEI Senior Achievement Award is Steven Baglole. Steven is a repeat winner of this award, and in 2010 he finished with a perfect score of 174 points.

Steven didn't make it out to quite as many runs this year. The fact that he now has four kids under the age of 8 might have something to do with it! While his quantity may have decreased … Steven was able to maintain the quality in his training and racing in 2010.

In the 10 races that he took part in, he won four (4) of them, placed second in one (1), and finished third in four (4) other races.

Some of Steven's highlights were:

- Another sub-5 minute mile - (4:57) in the ADL Golden Mile,
- A 17:26 – in the Banks Financial 5K run,
- A 36:38 – in the Source for Sports 10K
- A 4:46:58 – in the Brookvale Ultra-marathon 50K
- And finally, a 2:50:05 Prince Edward Island Marathon result

Steven had another great year in 2010 and is a very deserving winner. Congratulations Steven on winning the points championship and the ADL/Sport PEI Senior Male Achievement Award.
