

Female Roadrunner of the Year

The 2013 Female Roadrunner of the Year goes to Dianne Pye!

Not only does she run~~~ BOY DOES SHE RUN~~~ but she also shares her love of running, knowledge and experience with anyone and everyone at the many races she enters. She also imparts her wealth of running knowledge online, through social media, and at her 2nd workplace ,The Running Room.

Dianne is always interested in other runner's progress. She always has time to stop and inquire how you are doing as well as share her progress and her many, many bathroom stories! If we had a dollar for every one of your bathroom sagas.....

Dianne trains non stop, enters marathons all over North America and in 2013, completed her 50th marathon here at the PEI Marathon.

She is a Boston qualifier, and was a well spoken spokesperson after last year's bombing.

Elaine Burkholder couldn't be here tonight but she wanted everyone to know she is proud of you, Dianne, and loves being your running buddy!

Dianne, it gives us pleasure to award you the 2013 Female Roadrunner of the Year award!
